

Town of Superior
Historical Commission Meeting
Notes
June 20, 2014

Members of the Commission in attendance: Bob Morgan, Karen Waligorski, Errol Waligorski, Walt Ackerman, Mary Cartwright.

Others in attendance: Gail Khasawneh, Maureen Hogg, David Cartwright, Gerald Zancanelli, Clint Folsom, Joe Cirelli (Town Board Liaison), Bryan Meyer (Staff).

Agenda Items:

1. Debriefing – May and early June.
 - a. Karen and Errol Waligorski attended the Boulder Valley Ice ground breaking ceremony on May 18.
 - b. Cheryl Valentiner accepted an award on behalf of her father Denzil Acklin at the Boulder Heritage Roundtable Square Nail Awards on May 19. Staff accepted an award for the Founders Park project.
 - c. The Museum received a small number of visitors during the June 7 opening. Commission members discussed the possibility of revising the museum hours, but decided to not make any changes for now.
 - d. Mary Cartwright on behalf of the group formally thanked Trustee Cirelli for the time spent by the Board of Trustees in meeting with the Commission at the Joint Work Session on June 9. The Commission briefly recapped agenda items that were covered during the meeting.
 - e. Larry Dorsey formally presented to the Board of Trustees on June 9 the Square Nail Award for Founders Park.
2. Discussion – Reprinting of Lost Superior book. With approximately 90 copies remaining of the Lost Superior book, the Commission has decided to wait until next year to explore reprinting the book. In the meantime, the potential to republish on Amazon.com will be explored.
3. Discussion – Grasso house repairs. Members of the Commission discussed the current condition and potential repairs that may need to be performed at the Hake Homestead in Grasso Park. Staff will work with an engineer to conduct an inspection of the structure with the goal of determining a project cost.
4. Discussion – Fire truck funding. Superior resident Clint Folsom volunteered to reach out to an acquaintance who may be able to provide some realistic estimates and information on restoring the fire truck.
5. Discussion – Thank you cards. Karen Waligorski wanted to acknowledge on behalf of the Commission that thank you cards were sent to Stan Jarrett, Steve Lee and Patrick Hammer.
6. Discussion – July 4 Town event. The historic fire truck will once again be a part of the Town's July 4 Parade. Larry Dorsey is still communicating with the Forney Museum to secure one of their antique cars.

7. Discussion – Cemetery site visit. Staff will coordinate with Ranch Capital to determine a date and time for Commission members and staff to visit at the cemetery.
8. Discussion – Memorial bench. Louise Bennett and Laurel Russell would like to purchase and have installed a commercial grade swing-bench in Asti Park to honor the heritage of their family in Superior. The Commission unanimously supports installing the swing in Asti Park and will work with staff to determine the most appropriate location for installation.
9. Discussion – Water pump donation. Bob Morgan presented to the group a water pump that was donated by Danny Kupfner. This pump once belonged to Dave Kerr.
10. Discussion – Member terms. Staff has confirmed that Karen Waligorski and Bob Morgan have been re-appointed to the Historical Commission and their terms will expire June 2017.

Next Meeting: July 18, 2014, Town Hall, 10:00 a.m.
